WIAS Director gets Justus Liebig Award

Tomorrow, 24 May, the WIAS Scientific Director Professor Johan van Arendonk will be in Kiel, Germany, to get the Justus Liebig award for his work in animal genetics. Congratulations!

WIAS news board

Recently, a news board in the Zodiac main hall, near the large lecture room, has been dedicated to WIAS. Here you will find course announcements and other news for PhD students. If you have an item for the WIAS news board, please contact Gerrie van Eck.

Interviews with WIAS professors

During the past and following weeks, all WIAS professors are interviewed by Kor Oldenbroek (WIAS Assistant Director) and Gab van Winkel (WIAS Secretary). We discuss among others what PhD courses the chair group can organise, collaboration with the CRO-ASG in Lelystad, guiding young potentials, and also what WIAS could do better for its PhD students.

Inflow and outflow of PhD students

In the first half of 2006, thirteen WIAS PhD students graduated. Only seven new PhD students enrolled...
